On December 31, Mr. Adnan Mukhtar, in his capacity as an Islamabad Chamber of Commerce & Industry (ICCI) representative, conducted a visit to the Capital University of Science & Technology (CUST). The primary objective of this visit was to strengthen industry-academia linkages, a key priority for ICCI. This visit was part of ongoing efforts to: Promote greater collaboration between universities and the business sector encourage the development of curricula and research that meet industry requirements facilitate student exposure to real-world business challenges and opportunities. Mr. Mukhtar's engagement with academic institutions like CUST is consistent with his broader mandate to bridge the gap between entrepreneurship and the private sector, ensuring that educational outcomes are closely aligned with current and future market needs.

Mr. Mukhtar's visits and initiatives have been recognized for: Enhancing dialogue between academia and industry Supporting policy advocacy for educational reforms Creating opportunities for students to engage with business leaders driving socio-economic development through education-focused activities His leadership within ICCI and active participation in such visits underscore the importance of collaborative efforts to foster innovation, employability, and sustainable economic growth in Pakistan.
