Report on Collaborative Meeting between CUST and Rawalpindi Chamber of Commerce & Industry (RCCI) for Strategic Collaboration & Project Support

A delegation from Capital University of Science & Technology (CUST) visited Rawalpindi Chamber of Commerce & Industry (RCCI), on Tuesday 12th Nov, 2024 to discuss potential areas of collaboration. The delegation included Ms. Aasia, Assistant Manager (ORIC), and Ms. Shah Gul, Lecturer BI&BS Department. During the meeting, RCCI expressed a keen interest in receiving project startup applications. They highlighted their commitment to supporting and raising such projects, particularly by providing mentorship for initiatives that demonstrate promise.

Additionally, RCCI offered their expertise and resources for events focused on women empowerment, pledging to provide resource persons and specialists to CUST for relevant programs. This collaboration aims to foster growth and provide valuable insights to the university community.

Both parties also discussed plans to formalize this partnership through a Memorandum of Understanding (MoU), which will be signed soon. This MoU will serve as a foundation for mutual collaboration, benefiting both RCCI and CUST by combining their resources and expertise for shared objectives.

The meeting ended with a vote of thanks.
